Southgate Recreation & Park District is proud to unveil the stunning new Pat O’Brien Community Center and our New Aquatic Center to the community! This full-service, 10-acre facility will deliver a multitude of year-round activities for all ages, from youth and adult special interest classes, to fitness and aquatics programs, to before and after-school care, special events, to facility rentals for your next meeting, party or celebration, and much more.

The Pat O’Brien Community Center — at nearly 13,000 square feet — features a large gymnasium/meeting space with moveable partitions, meeting room, full kitchen, and an outdoor patio area. The adjacent New Aquatic Center features both a 4,400 square foot beach-entry activity pool and a 6,500 square foot competition pool, along with office space, locker rooms and equipment building. There is also a spray play area for all ages to enjoy.

Included in the overall site are a concession area, playground, picnic areas, and a Support Center to facilitate park maintenance activities in the eastern portion of the District.

About Pat O’Brien

Pat O’Brien served as General Manager for Southgate Recreation & Park District from 1980 to 1989, guiding the District through a period of growth and innovation, initiating new funding approaches, and focusing on delivering quality programming and parks to the community. Following that, he served 22 years as General Manager of East Bay Regional Park District, the nation’s largest regional park and open space district. A lifelong champion of recreation and park services, Pat excelled at developing unique and successful partnerships and collaborations with non-profit organizations, universities, community college districts and other public agencies. In 2002, Pat was named Professional of the Year on behalf of the National Recreation and Parks Association, Pacific Southwest Regional Council. Pat is a distinguished member of the American Academy for Park and Recreation Administration.
